

JONATHAN CREEK CHRISTIAN, SULLIVAN, ILLINOIS CHURCH JOINS DHF

On Sunday, November 19, Jonathan Creek Christian Church of Sullivan, Illinois voted to join DHF. The congregation has been a supporter and active with DHF over many years. Apparently there was a misunderstanding when DHF was formed, and the congregation assumed that since they were a Disciple Renewal covenant church, they automatically became a part of DHF when it formed. DHF executive director Doug Harvey was speaking at the church and mentioned that Jonathan Creek was not a member of DHF. Congregational leaders expressed surprise, as they thought they were.

A Board meeting was scheduled that evening, and the confusion was cleared up by a vote to join DHF.
