- LEAVING FOR TANZANIA

June 2007

Greetings!

It has been an amazing month for me. In my last update, you may remember that I quoted verses from Nehemiah 1:4-5 and then shared my desire to hear vs. 6 "So the King agreed, and I set a date for my departure."

He has answered my hearts cry! I will be departing for Arusha the first week in August. The faithfulness of the Lord continues to amaze me... even though I know it shouldn't surprise me... it does! Praise the Lord for his goodness with me!

You will each be receiving a letter from me in the mail with more details about my departure and the small changes that are happening to make my departure possible. Please be praying for my residence permit to be quickly approved by the Tanzanian government as I will be able to depart only when it is completed.

The News

The Commissioning service in Indianapolis was such a blessing. I had the privilege of being commissioned along with the other three Tanzania Newbies. Ron and Jane Ann Richmond, Teresa Polvadore and I, along with 15 other recruits, were commissioned at a capping service attended by many CMF staff members, CMF missionaries, friends and family. You can see from the pictures that we had a great time and are so blessed to be "officially" commissioned and sent out.

Around the Commissioning service and Board Meeting, I had the chance to share with a church on the East coast, along with seeing a few friends and saying some hard good-byes. I am so thankful for the Internet and Skype!! It makes being away a bit easier. What ever did we do before the Internet? Oh ya, LETTERS! :)

This weekend I will be heading to Colorado to attend a conference involving some of my supporting churches, and hopefully having the opportunity to meet the leadership of a few future supporting churches. I will be returning next week to Portland.

Coming up...

I have moved out of the house where I have been living for the past few years... most everything is packed and ready to be shipped to Arusha in August. So, where does this leave me?

- I am living in the guest room/office at the apartment my parents are renting while on furlough.
- I am finishing up the end of my purchasing needs for my shipment to Arusha.
- I am still working on raising the last part of my needed support.

Prayer Requests

Please pray for the quick and smooth processing of my residence permit.

Please pray for safety as I travel this next week.

Please pray for the rest of my support to come in.

Please pray that everything that needs to be accomplished in the next EIGHT WEEKS!

THANK YOU for all of your constant Prayer and Support.

In Him,

Kendra
