

FOWLER CHURCH AGAIN REPRESENTED AT NATIONAL PRAYER BREAKFAST

For the second year in a row, Fowler Christian Church of Fowler, Colorado, was privileged to have four couples as representatives at the National Prayer Breakfast in Washington, DC. Jerry and Leslie Bonds, J. H. and Marybeth McCuiston, Jeff and Pam Spitzer and Larry and Elaine White traveled to Washington in February for a five-day visit to the capital. The highlight of the trip was attendance with over 3,000 other guests at the annual Prayer Breakfast. The program included music by Point of Grace, an address by musician Bono, and a message from President Bush. The Breakfast is part of an all-day event that also included messages from King Abdullah of Jordan and James Nyondo, Crow Prince of Malawi and music by Mercy Me. Don Sniff is the pastor of the Fowler church and attended the event last year.
