

DHF National Conference Report

On June 9-12 the 2007 DHF National Conference was held in Estes Park, Colorado. Ninety-six attended the conference.

The theme, "As You Go," centered on taking ministry outside the church's walls and into the world.

Julie McClarey brought her special gifts at the piano. Worship music was led by a team from New Hope Christian Church, Kansas City, Missouri. Dee-Ann Enslin led, with Pete Enslin on bass, Michael Jones on percussion and Mark Jones vocal. Michael ten Eyck of Pittsfield, Illinois, Jim Gladney of Putnam City, Oklahoma and Rick and Nancy Grace of Springdale, Arkansas added their musical gifts to the worship team. Though this group had never met before, they blended into a very effective worship team.

Preachers were Doug Harvey, DHF Executive Director, Mark Hillis, pastor of Faith Harvest Church in Mesa, Arizona, David Welch, pastor of Plano Christian Church, Plano, Iowa, Kevin Wilkinson, Army Chaplain, Gary Woods, missionary to Tanzania and Lora Durkes of Saved By Grace Fellowship, Raymore, Missouri.

The workshops were given extra time and most focused on practical methods for churches to reach out with the Good News.

The schedule was adjusted to allow extra free time in the afternoons, and many were able to enjoy the mountain scenery and the nearby Rocky Mountain National Park.
