

Hi all,

Thought I should quick send an update. We are pretty much settled into our home and now trying to keep warm as "winter" has arrived. The kitchen is staying at 65 degrees...and a fire in the fireplace sure is nice. Lynn and I hosted 3 days of team meetings at our home last week including a July 4th celebration complete with sparklers! The 3 days of team meetings were wonderful as we were able to meet and get to know our new teammates. Joshua and Ruth Barron along with daughters Alitza (3 1/2 yr) and Hannah (close to 2 yrs) are preparing to welcome a new member to their family...any time!!! Please keep them in your prayers as baby Barron will be born in Nairobi which is a whole new experience for the Barrons. After language learning, Joshua will begin writing curriculum for Bible Studies, resources, and the list is endless and much needed!! Ruth is looking forward to using her gifts in English teaching. Helen Tak, working with HIV/AIDS education, is also gifted in numerous ways. It was awesome just to sit back and see the dynamics of the team that is in Kenya and also stateside...how God has brought such different giftings together for such a time as this. Also new to Kenya is our Field Business Administrator and family...arriving just in time for July 4th! Jeff and Tammi Brown have three children...Emily, Eliot, Edison. Oh yes, and teammates Dan and Connie Crum with Rachel, have also just moved into a different house following a year furlough. So there you go...lots of shifting, moving, settling in as another term gets underway.

Tomorrow morning we leave for the coast. Three days of family vacation followed by a week of the All Africa Missionary Conference. Please pray that this would be a time of spiritual renewal, quiet reflection, sweet fellowship with other missionaries across Africa and safe travel for all.

Please also continue to pray for Kenya as we are in an election year and things seem a bit unsettled at times. Pray for our safety as we travel about Nairobi and out to Maasailand.

Thanks for your prayers regarding the re-entry stamp for the girls' passports. All went smooth!!

Serving our gracious Father,

Dori for the Cazier
