

PASTORAL MOVES

In March, Tony Christians announced his resignation as pastor of First Christian Church in St. Francis Kansas. Tony and his wife Kris plan to move to Oklahoma and focus on small group ministry as laypeople. Tony's last Sunday at St. Francis is May 21st.

Macksville Christian Church has called David Crook as their new pastor. David and his family are transitioning from their current home in Topeka in stages.

Dennis Davenport has become the pastor of the United Christian Church in Osborne, Kansas. Dennis previously pastored the Grandview Christian Church in Kansas City, Kansas and spent a year in full-time evangelism and music ministry before accepting the call to Osborne.

Robin Ballard has concluded his ministry at Ocoee Christian Church in Ocoee, Florida. He is now serving as a hospital chaplain in the Orlando area.