

Steve Henton

Steve Henton began full time ministry in Paducah, Texas at the First Christian Church in 1973. Steve grew up in Bryan, Texas, graduating from Stephen F. Austin High School in 1965, and was a member of the First Christian Church. He then entered T.C.U. where he received his B.A., and later earned his Master of Divinity from TCU's Brite Divinity School.

Steve pastored Rockwood Christian Church in Fort Worth, Texas, being the senior minister there since 1984. In 2005 Rockwood sold it's property and is in the building process, establishing a new church in Fort Worth, Texas on west loop 820 near Meacham Airport.

Steve emphasizes the grace of God in every aspect of the ministry. He loves preaching, teaching, and playing the guitar in the praise band at his church.

The church changed its name to Heartsong Fellowship and is currently meeting at Saginaw Elementary, not far from where they are planning to build their new church.

Steve has been active in Disciple Renewal since 1985, serving on the board, contributing articles, and speaking at various National Conferences.

Heartsong Fellowship is an avid supporter of Disciple Heritage Fellowship.

Steve has been married since 1973 to his wife, Becky. His daughter, Ami, lives in Austin, and his son, David lives in Euless, Texas.
