His testimony: I accepted Christ and was baptized at the Cheney (Washington) Christian Church on Easter of 1963. My life has been a progression in Christ since then (with a few backward steps). In my years at Cheney, I learned the centrality of Scripture. In my late teens I had a transforming experience of the Holy Spirit. I resisted the idea of ministry, but God clearly led me into student ministries, then full-time ministry after seminary. Because of my evangelical convictions, in 1985 I helped start Disciple Renewal, which became DHF. I was active in writing, speaking and serving on the board of DHF through the years, but did not plan to join the staff. Then in 2000 God powerfully called me to accept the call to DHF, and now that I'm here, I know He has been preparing me for this ministry for many years. In recent years God has been especially teaching me that He can do all things and I can't, so I can relax in Him. He has removed my anxieties and given me a peace I've never known.
